The Curator,

Musee ancien,

Brussels.

Dear Sir,

I have a very wonderful picture by Breughell, which I desire to dispose of, the picture has been in my possession many years, and is in a good state of preservation, it is on an oak panel 5 feet 6 inches by 5 feet, and for detail and beautiful work is not to be excelled, my Friends tell me that the right place to dispose of such a picture is on the Continent, and so I take the liberty of writing you, and enclose a photograph. Your representative could see the picture at any time at my private house. The price I am asking is a very small one, viz. £200., if you wish to buy it but think the price a little too high I am open to receive your offer, as a matter of fact it has been valued at a sum far beyond this; if you cannot buy It I shall be very grateful if you could suggest to me anyone in your Country who would like it, and beg to remain,

Yours faithfully,

Albert E. Shiner
