To the Curator of the Brussels Museum
Brussels

Dear Sir

We have a picture, which was given to Mr Sir Carrington, who died in 1883.

It is by Theodore Rombouts and represents a Dutch fair; it was given to the late Mr Sir Carrington by a church minister who collected pictures, this minister had borrowed money from Mr Carrington and left him this picture in his will, saying that it was very valuable, if it is a genuine one, that it is genuine we have the opinion of an art dealer; the thought ~~it~~ might be valuable to your collection.

We shall be pleased to hear from you if you would like to have further particulars, we could send you a small water colour sketch of it - the size is 63 cm by 49 cm

Yours truly
Walter T Carrington
for execs of late Sir Carrington
