Dear Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 12th September, which has reached us to-day, may we ask you to be good enough to pack the little picture by Kerrinckx in the case in which it reached you and return it to us by Continental Parcels Express.?

We have the honour to remain,

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir:

At the suggestion of M. Georges Stulen de Loo, we are sending you a small painting by Kriemhild to be submitted to the purchasing committee of your Museum. The price is thirty-five pounds and I enclose a memorandum bill for that amount.

Will you kindly let us know of the safe arrival of the picture and also of course as soon as the committee reaches a decision.

We are always delighted to forward an accession in every way possible, which accounts for the exceedingly moderate price we have quoted on the picture.

Yours truly
