Monsieur le Président

Dear Sir / I am on a few days visit to my daughter at one of the Schools here.

Some little time since a relative of mine (an English Baronet recent) told me she would dispose of two of M. Hobbema's pictures that have been in the family considerably over a century, provided she could meet with someone who would give her the value they merit namely £5.500 each.

I am sure then I can give ample proof of them being genuine. I shall visit Antwerp & London en route for home - if it is your pleasure, I shall be pleased to have an interview with you on the subject, either to morrow or the next day at any hour most convenient to yourself.

Seeing two of these artists productions at the Museum this morning - induces me to write. Trusting you

Will pardon my trespassing on your valuable time,

Believe me,

Monsieur le President,

Your obedient servant
