Mme

Madame,

La Commission du Musée (section d'art ancien) a émis un avis défavorable à l'entrée dans nos collections du tableau attribué à Roeland Savery, dont vous nous avez envoyé la photographie. ~~Celle-ci a été classée dans nos archives.~~

Agréez, Madame, l'assurance de mes sentiments distingués.

Madame,

Nous recevrons volontiers la photographie du tableau que vous nous signalez: "Paradis terrestre" attribué à Roeland Savery (dont c'est en effet l'un des sujets habituels). Les renseignements, ainsi que les conditions d'achat, seront soumis à l'examen de la Commission directrice; celle-ci ne se réunira pas cependant avant plusieurs semaines.

Agréez, Madame, l'assurance de mes sentiments très distingués.

Dear Sir. We have here a Picture by the Belgian Artist "Savary" examples of whose Art I have seen in Galleries in Brussels and other Towns in Belgium & Holland — The Subject is Adam & Eve in the Garden of Eden.
Lamming the animals. It is a beautiful Picture. Very large, the Soft colouring suggesting old Tapestry

His size is $5 \frac{3}{4}$ by 7 - widering frame (Leaves quite) If you have any agent ^{in London} you could send me its report on it. We would be willing to sell if a good price were offered - or we could have it photographed if it is unpossible for me to inspect. Forward you the photo - The picture was bought in Brussels in 1815 by a G. Under of my friend's husband's

My husband used to take me it was brought out of a cellar for his G. Under inspection purchase where it was put to hide it from a possible G. Under Truly friend Erasmus.

(True). In B. H. Ober.
