Dear Sir

I have had an old picture in my possession some 30 years and took but little notice of it, I have just had it restored and it is believed to be a portrait of William III as Prince of Orange at the age of about Eleven or Twelve years and a remarkable fine oil painting, probably an original.
I should be glad to know if a Photograph of it would interest you and if you know of a picture like it. The Emblem of his title is seen on a bracket. He is holding a Hawk or Parrot on his fingers. Catching water with the other hand from a fountain and has a fine Spaniel at his feet. at the moment the picture is on view in this City.

Dear Sir / Yours of the 3rd Instant duly received.

I have pleasure in sending you a photograph of my picture. I am informed that the painting is an original one, doubtless you can easily trace who was the artist - for Royalty at that period.

It is a pretty picture and beautifully painted. I hope to hear further
